Feel free to call; I'm available until 5:30 pm. I'll have my phone on after 7:30, too, if you don't get to this until then.

Thanks Wayne. I may have some minor edits, which I can do after you send through HQ (hard to do on my phone while on the road, but shouldn't impact HQ review). So once you hear from others, go ahead and get HQ looking at it.

Please see attached draft letter on the HPNS soil addendum. I'll prepare a revised draft later today (this afternoon or early evening) after I hear back from Brianna and Yolanda (and John and Lily if you have time to review).

I'll then send the revised draft to Stuart, Dianna, and Emerald/Emmy in HQ for an initial staff review in the hope that we get initial HQ feedback before we talk with Enrique at 4 tomorrow. Unless we further extend the due date, our comments are due Tuesday, 10/8
